Fee for Service Contract

Financial Policy:

The client/legal representative is responsible for payment of all fees for services provided according to the following fee structure:

	1 ½ Hour	1 Hour	½ Hour	¼ Hour
Psychiatrist / Nurse Prescriber:	$400.00	$300.00	$200.00	$100.00
	53 to 67 min.	38 to 52 min.	16 to 37 min
Psychologist:	$200.00	$180.00	$100.00
Masters Level Therapist:	$180.00	$160.00	$90.00
Groups:	$60.00

Clients are billed according to the above stated fee structure. Uninsured, under-insured, high-deductible and HMO-restricted clients are eligible for discounted fees. If you meet one of these criteria, please tell our office staff previous to or at the time of your first appointment, and you will be provided a private pay contract. Private payments are expected at the time the client checks in for their appointment.

Insurance:

As a service to our clients, claims will be filed with your insurance company at no charge. It is your responsibility to contact your insurance company to determine if your insurance will cover outpatient mental health and if you have deductible, copayments and if prior authorization is required for payment. If you have a deductible or if your insurance pays only a portion of the total fee, you are responsible for the balance. Genesis cannot accept responsibility for collecting from your insurance or for negotiating a settlement on a disputed claim. Payment on the balance will be expected within 30 days, or arrangements must be made for monthly payment toward the balance. It is up to the client or legal representative to make such arrangements.

Payment of Fees:

Co-payment fees are due at the time of service. Other charges are to be paid upon receipt of your bill. If payments are not made in a timely fashion, Genesis reserves the right to seek legal means to secure reimbursement. For your convenience, we will send you a monthly statement regarding charges for services rendered by Genesis. If you note any discrepancies on that statement, please immediately contact our business office at 608-757-0404. A $50.00 service charge plus bank fees will apply for any returned checks.

Minor Children:

The parent or legal representative, who brings a minor child to Genesis and signs at the bottom of this form, will be held responsible for any part of the bill not paid by insurance. As a service to you, we will file a claim with any insurance company on which the minor is covered.

Cancellations/No-Shows:

If you need to cancel your appointment, you must do so at least 24 hours in advance. This will allow us to fill that appointment time. If we are not notified 24 hours prior to your appointment, you may be charged a $100.00 fee for that hour. We know that there are emergencies due to circumstances beyond your control. If this happens, please notify us as soon as possible. Note that TWO no-shows may be cause for termination of treatment at Genesis Counseling Services. If that occurs, you will not be able to schedule for a period of 120 days. As a courtesy, Genesis attempts to make reminder calls regarding current appointments; however, there are times when this may not occur. Ultimately, it is your responsibility to keep your appointments.

I understand and agree to pay for services provided according to the above fee structure. I authorize payment of medical benefits, as described on the insurance form, directly to Genesis Counseling Services. I understand that this will include a diagnosis.

CLIENT RIGHTS, RESPONSIBILITIES, AND INFORMED CONSENT

Welcome to Genesis Counseling Services.

MISSION STATEMENT

Genesis Counseling Services, in partnership with its clients, seeks to provide comprehensive services to promote change, accountability, and empowerment for individuals, families, and communities.

CORE VALUES

We believe that all persons are valuable and unique. We are passionate about helping each client reach their full potential. We are committed to continued personal and professional development. We believe that proactivity is the best approach, whenever possible. We operate as a team - whether we are together or apart. We are sensitive to the needs, opinions, and concerns of others. We apply the highest standards of professional and personal ethics, while recognizing cultural differences. We are proud of what we do together and individually. We believe that everyone is capable of change and growth. We believe that small changes lead to big changes. We believe in imperfection. We trust ourselves and each other.

DESCRIPTION

Genesis Counseling Services is licensed to provide outpatient mental health and substance abuse treatment. Providers are under the supervision of a licensed psychologist or psychiatrist. During the first session, the therapist will review:

- The services, treatment alternatives and recommendations;
- Possible outcomes, including benefits and side effects;
- Approximate duration and desired outcome;
- The means by which a consumer may obtain emergency mental health services;
- The clinic's discharge policy, including circumstances that may result in involuntary discharge.

Client Rights and Responsibilities

- At Genesis Counseling Services, we respect the personal and unique needs and values of each client.
- We consider our clients to be partners in their mental health care.
- Our expectation is that the observance of Client's Rights will support mutual cooperation and greater satisfaction for clients and staff.

As a Client you have the right:

1. To know the name, identity, and professional status of all persons providing services to you and to know the staff member who is primarily responsible for your family's services.
2. To receive complete and current information concerning your assessment and/or treatment service plan in terms that you can understand.
3. To accept or refuse any service offered or treatment, and to be informed of the consequences of any such refusal. If there is conflict between you and your parent/guardian regarding your exercise of this right, you and parent/guardian may need to participate in conflict resolution procedures. If there is a conflict between you and your referring agency (DFCS, DJJ, probation), the referring agency will advise you of such consequences of lack of cooperation.
4. To receive and review the Notice of Policies and Practices to Protect the Privacy of your Health Information.
5. To supportive care including appropriate management and support of your psychological and spiritual needs without regard to sex, race, sexual orientation, age, pregnancy, religious beliefs, national origin, and physical disability.
6. To assistance in obtaining consultation with another therapist regarding your care when needed. This consultation may result in additional cost to you or your family.
7. To know if your care involves research or experimental methods of treatment. You have the right to consent or refuse to participate.
8. To voice complaints regarding your care, to have those complaints reviewed and, when possible, resolved without fear of any harm or penalty to yourself. You have the right to be informed of the response to your complaint.
9. To expect reasonable continuity of care. You have the right to participate in the discharge planning process.
10. To be informed of any policies, procedures, rules or regulations applicable to you.
11. Freedom from financial or other exploitation.
12. Freedom from retaliation, humiliation, and neglect and/or abuse.

Complaints and Appeals

Clients have the right to a fair and efficient process for resolving disputes and differences with provider. Clients have the right to communicate freely with the Therapist, Paraprofessional, supervisor and Clinical Director. All clients should be given a complaint form by their Therapist or Paraprofessional or referred to Maria Hanson, the agency Client Right Specialist, at 608-446-8957.

As a client it is your responsibility:

It is reasonable to expect and encourage clients to assume reasonable responsibilities. Greater individual involvement by clients in their care increase the likelihood of achieving the best outcomes. Those responsibilities include:

1. To provide all personal and family health information needed to provide you with the appropriate services. This includes open and honest disclosure of family/individual social and mental health history and reporting any feelings of harming yourself or others.
2. To participate to the best of your ability in making decisions about your mental health treatment, and to comply with the agreed upon plan of service.
3. To ask questions when you do not understand any information or instructions.
4. To be considerate of others receiving and providing services.
5. To observe facility policies and procedures, including those regarding smoking.
6. To participate in the formulation of your Treatment Plan in discussion with the clinical staff.
7. To follow the Treatment Plan and take any prescribed medication in order to advance in treatment.
8. To provide the administrative staff with all required information to maintain proper and correct records.
9. To keep your appointments and be on time.
10. To treat your Therapist or Paraprofessional with dignity and respect.
11. To inform the administrative staff of any changes in insurance plans, eligibility, or employment status.
12. To pay for services as necessary, including co-pays and deductible, and to provide necessary information for the administrative staff to successfully seek reimbursement of insured services.

Additional Disclosures:

1. Due to ethical and legal guidelines, all staff members are mandated to report any indications, belief, or suspicion of harm to oneself, harm to others, or intent to harm self or others. This includes suspicions of child abuse or neglect and elder abuse or neglect.
2. If you have been referred by another agency, Genesis Counseling Services may obtain a release of information to share treatment progress, treatment plan, and participation in services with the referring agency. Case updates, client contact summaries, and assessment and intake information may be provided to the referring agency. The referring agency may be made aware of case plan recommendations and treatment progress throughout the course of treatment with Genesis Counseling Services.
3. Counseling and psychiatric services are often sought by individuals and families to alleviate difficulties that are occurring. As counseling services progress, clients may find themselves feeling worse rather than better. Understand that this is a common problem experienced by many. As problems that have never been discussed before are now being talked about during counseling, it can stir up difficult emotions. If you experience this, it is important to talk about this openly with your counselor. Your counselor will help you manage these feelings in a supportive manner. Often times, things get worse before they get better. Know that the entire treatment team is here to support you, should you feel worse before feeling better.

Financial Disclosure:

You hereby give permission to Genesis Counseling Services to file any insurance claims with third party payer sources and provide/receive information necessary to complete these transactions, including the ability to appeal any denial of claims for services rendered and to actively seek compensation for services as necessary. Additionally, you understand that while Genesis Counseling Services will seek reimbursement through insurance or other payer sources, you (or parent/guardian) are ultimately responsible for payment for these services, or may be responsible for a co-pay as designated by the payer source. You agree that it is your responsibility to provide accurate and updated information regarding alternate payer sources (such as insurance) to Genesis Counseling Services and assist the agency with recouping filed claims as necessary. In the event that a claim is denied, you understand that you will be responsible for the payment for service.

Termination

1. At any time, Genesis Counseling Services or you may terminate services.
2. Services will automatically be terminated after a 90-day lapse in treatment (30 days for substance abuse).
3. Two no-shows within a 12-month period may be cause for termination of treatment.

Right to have access to self-help and advocacy support services

Client can receive advocacy support services through the Department of Human Resources - Client Advocacy Department that can be reached at 770-720-3610.

Choice of Providers

Clients have the right to choice of provider (when available) in order to ensure access to appropriate high quality care. By signing this document, you acknowledge that you have chosen Genesis Counseling Services as your provider.

Access to Emergency Services

Clients have the right to access services 24 hours/day, 7 days/week in case of an emergency. A therapist is available on call between 8:30 AM and 8 PM Monday through Thursday and 8:30 AM and 6:00 PM Friday during business hours. After hours, should an emergency arise, please call 911 for imminent issues. For all other crises or emergency calls, you may contact the main office at 608-757-0404 in order to obtain the after-hours number listed on the voice mail.

Respect and Nondiscrimination

Clients must not be discriminated against in the delivery of services based on race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, sex, age, mental or physical disability, sexual orientation, genetic information, or source of payment. Clients and their families have the right to be treated with courtesy, respect and dignity at all times. Limitation to access to service does not infer or result in discrimination. These limitations (i.e. inability to effectively treat psychotic participants with active hallucinations, delusions, patients under the influence of drugs during the majority face-to-face contacts, families without stable housing, autistic patients and children and adolescents without parent/guardian, sexual offenders who are predatory) are discussed with referring agencies and clients/families.

Disclosure Regarding Third-Party Access to Communications

Please know that with the use of electronic communication methods, such as email, texting, online video, and possibly others, there are various technicians and administrators who maintain these services and may have access to the content of those communications. In some cases, these accesses are more likely than in others.

Of special consideration are work email addresses. If you use your work email to communicate with your therapist, your employer may have access to these email communications. There may be similar issues involved in school email or other email accounts associated with organizations that you are affiliated with. Additionally, people with access to your computer, mobile phone, and/or other devices may also have access to your email and/or text messages. Please take a moment to contemplate the risks involved if any of these persons were to access the messages exchanged.

Social Media Policy

Please refrain from making contact with any employee of Genesis Counseling Services using social media messaging systems such as Facebook, Messenger or Twitter. These methods have very poor security and we are not prepared to watch them closely for important messages from clients.

Genesis Counseling Services staff members, including all clinical and administrative staff, are prohibited from initiating or accepting friend or other connection requests from current or former clients on any social media networking site (Facebook, LinkedIn, etc.). Adding clients as friends or contacts on these sites can compromise client/patient confidentiality. It may also blur the boundaries of the therapeutic relationship.

Genesis Counseling Services Social Media Pages

Genesis Counseling Services maintains a social media page to share information about our practice and health issues that may be of interest to the general public. Page administrators or staff are also prohibited from interacting with current or former clients on any social media platform. While we welcome associates and clients alike to view the social media sites, read and share articles posted there, etc., Genesis Counseling Services has no control over the privacy of any of the social media sites. The privacy terms and policies of the various social media sites do apply and we encourage associates and clients to review those policies and understand that their name may become visible and identifiable. Genesis Counseling Services has no control over and accepts no responsibility for privacy on any social media site.

NOTE: Though clients and/or former clients may follow/like/etc. the Genesis Counseling Services page, Genesis Counseling Services and its associates are prohibited from following current or former clients' social media pages, blogs, websites, etc. Genesis Counseling Services only follows/likes/etc. other health professionals and/or groups. Neither Genesis Counseling Services nor its associates will solicit likes, follows, testimonials, etc. from current or former clients.

I acknowledge that I have read the above Genesis Counseling Services Client Rights and information sheet, the privacy notice, and have had the opportunity to receive a copy of the same.

I give permission to Genesis Counseling Services to file any insurance claim with third party payer sources and provide/receive information necessary to complete these transactions. Genesis Counseling Services has the ability to appeal any denial of claims for services rendered on my behalf. I assign all payment to Genesis Counseling Services for services rendered and claims filed.

I understand that while Genesis Counseling Services will seek reimbursement through insurance or other payer sources, I (or parent/guardian) am ultimately responsible for payment for these services, or may be responsible for a co-pay as designated by the payer source. I agree that it is my responsibility to provide accurate and updated information regarding alternative payer sources (such as primary insurance) or changes in payer sources to Genesis Counseling Services in order to assist with filing claims for services rendered and appealing these claims, as necessary. In the event that a claim is denied, I understand that I may be responsible for the full payment for the services rendered.

I understand that Genesis Counseling Services makes every attempt to coordinate my mental health/substance abuse treatment and care with my primary care physician. I understand that Genesis Counseling Services will notify my primary care physician that I am receiving services at Genesis Counseling Services only upon my expressed, written permission. Additional treatment information, such as treatment plan, updates, progress, medical records, recommendations, and medications will only be released upon my expressed, written permission to Genesis Counseling Services.

By signing this document, I acknowledge that I understand the information contained herein and that I give consent for interns to participate in, and provide services related to, my or my child's treatment, under appropriate supervision as described.

By signing this form, I consent to the care and treatment as is prescribed by Genesis Counseling Services for myself; if I am the parent/guardian of a minor child under the age of 18, by signing this form, I consent to the care and treatment as is prescribed by Genesis Counseling Services. I understand that the purpose of treatment practices will be explained to me and is subject to my agreement.

Instructions to Clinicians

The DSM-5 Level 1 Cross-Cutting Symptom Measure is a self- or informant-rated measure that assesses mental health domains that are important across psychiatric diagnoses. It is intended to help clinicians identify additional areas of inquiry that may have significant impact on the individual's treatment and prognosis. In addition, the measure may be used to track changes in the individual's symptom presentation over time.

This adult version of the measure consists of 23 questions that assess 13 psychiatric domains, including depression, anger, mania, anxiety, somatic symptoms, suicidal ideation, psychosis, sleep problems, memory, repetitive thoughts and behaviors, dissociation, personality functioning, and substance use. Each item inquires about how much (or how often) the individual has been bothered by the specific symptom during the past 2 weeks. If the individual is of impaired capacity and unable to complete the form (e.g., an individual with dementia), a knowledgeable adult informant may complete the measure. The measure was found to be clinically useful and to have good test-retest reliability in the DSM-5 Field Trials that were conducted in adult clinical samples across the United States and in Canada.

Scoring and Interpretation

Each item on the measure is rated on a 5-point scale (0=none or not at all; 1=slight or rare, less than a day or two; 2=mild or several days; 3=moderate or more than half the days; and 4=severe or nearly every day). The score on each item within a domain should be reviewed. Because additional inquiry is based on the highest score on any item within a domain, the clinician is asked to indicate that score in the "Highest Domain Score" column. A rating of mild (i.e., 2) or greater on any item within a domain (except for substance use, suicidal ideation, and psychosis) may serve as a guide for additional inquiry and follow up to determine if a more detailed assessment for that domain is necessary. For substance use, suicidal ideation, and psychosis, a rating of slight (i.e., 1) or greater on any item within the domain may serve as a guide for additional inquiry and follow-up to determine if a more detailed assessment is needed. The DSM-5 Level 2 Cross-Cutting Symptom Measures may be used to provide more detailed information on the symptoms associated with some of the Level 1 domains (see Table 1 below).

Frequency of Use

To track change in the individual's symptom presentation over time, the measure may be completed at regular intervals as clinically indicated, depending on the stability of the individual's symptoms and treatment status. For individuals with impaired capacity, it is preferable that the same knowledgeable informant completes the measures at follow-up appointments. Consistently high scores on a particular domain may indicate significant and problematic symptoms for the individual that might warrant further assessment, treatment, and follow-up. Clinical judgment should guide decision making.
